

January 2010 Newsletter

GoTheatrical!
Captioning

Welcome to an exciting new year of captioned theatrical performances! 2010 is already shaping up to be a busy year in the theatre, with new Australian productions, favourite old classics and even a bit of Shakespeare versus The Simpsons set to be live captioned within just the next few months. With many more thought-provoking, tragic, dramatic and hilarious productions yet to come, the Captioned Performances program on our website will be regularly updated throughout the year, but for the present, please take a moment to read on and find a selection of the amazing, live captioned talent soon to be taking centre stage around the country this year.
